Japanese Delegation Visits NCIS

NCIS staff Mike Sieben, Frank Schnapp, Troy Brady, Lynnette Dillon and Dean Strasser met with a delegation from the Japanese Ministry of Agriculture and the National Agricultural Insurance Association on December 2. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the Whole Farm Revenue Protection program as a new form of insurance protection for Japanese producers, with the associated underwriting requirements and the loss adjustment process. The newly available privately developed Margin Protection endorsement was also discussed. The delegation also reviewed the design and operation of the current multi-peril crop insurance and livestock disease and mortality insurance in Japan. The major perils for Japanese producers are cool weather and heavy rains due to the frequent prevalence of typhoons.
