1890 Scholarship Recipients

Annually NCIS awards scholarships to two students majoring in an agricultural discipline and enrolled at an 1890 Land-Grant University. This year's recipients are Ms. MarKayla Bethea, majoring in food science at Alabama A&M University; and Mr. Anon Anderson, majoring in animal science at Lincoln University in Missouri. Both students are starting their junior year and will benefit from their NCIS scholarship for four semesters as long as they meet the academic qualification requirements and continue as a full time student in good standing at their respective university. The 1890 Land-Grant institutions were established under the Second Morrill Act of 1890. The purpose of this scholarship program is to enable deserving students to further their education and to expose them to the business of crop insurance.

Upcoming NCIS Train the Trainer Spring Conference

The NCIS Train the Trainer Spring Conference is scheduled for November 4-5, 2015, with a registration fee and hotel reservation deadline of October 13. A detailed agenda, along with the registration form, was mailed to designated attendees last Friday. As a reminder, it is important that your choice of an e-binder or hardcopy binder is designated on the registration form. As an incentive when choosing the e-binder, the website link is available to participants before the conference and the registration fee is reduced.
