Another active week at NCIS. With many new and important developments taking place in our industry, we bring you a "round-up" of NCIS activities, meetings, projects and progress. A list of future events will also be included in each edition.

We welcome your comments and look forward to sharing this update with you.

Agriculture Future of America (AFA) Visits NCIS

Members of the Agriculture Future of America's (AFA) Student Advisory Team visited with Laurie Langstraat and Ashley Craft from NCIS to learn more about NCIS and to share about their roles as student advisory team members and AFA. AFA is celebrating its 20th anniversary this year and NCIS has been a proud supporter for all of those years. The organization focuses on leadership development, providing internships and awarding scholarships to students majoring in all aspects of agriculture. Those in attendance included Brandon Brunt, an agribusiness management and agricultural education major at Purdue University, Layton Hrubes, an animal science major at Montana State University, Savannah Vickery, an agricultural education major at Clemson University, and Annie Storey, Director of Programs for AFA.

NCIS Board of Directors Meeting

NCIS held its quarterly Board of Directors meeting June 27 and 28. Agenda items included follow up from the spring meetings of the NCIS Standing Committees and the Program Development Committee. The Board also reviewed NCIS administrative activities and financial reports.
