Happy National Ag Day - March 21!

Happy National Ag Day today with National Ag week being held March 19-25. Agriculture is essential to everyday life. Celebrate the individuals who dedicate their lives to feeding the world on Ag Day. The events surrounding National Ag Day mark a nationwide effort to tell the true story of American agriculture. This can be accomplished by spreading the positive message of how agriculture touches all lives daily through the production of food and fiber products. Agriculture not only helps maintain a strong economy, but also provides safe, abundant and affordable products.
